The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is a treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in groups of four, with some single notes. The lower staff is a bass clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in groups of four, with some single notes. The score is divided into two measures by a double bar line.

Lord, — we've got — ta keep the faith. —

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented on two staves. The upper staff is a vocal line in G major, featuring a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, and a final section with a key signature change to E major. The lower staff is a piano accompaniment, consisting of a simple bass line of eighth notes and a treble staff with chords marked by 'X's. The tempo is marked 'Andante' and the dynamic is 'mf'.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system contains the first two measures of the melody and the first measure of the bass line. The second system contains the next three measures of the melody and the next three measures of the bass line. The melody is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It features various musical notations including eighth notes, quarter notes, and rests, with some notes beamed together. The bass line is written in bass clef and uses a simplified notation system with numbers (7, 9, 0) and 'X' marks. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.
